Beautifully Curly, Wavy Hair—In Three Hours!

Girls, have you tried the almirine method of curling your hair? It's simply grand! Gives you the most beautiful, natural-looking curls and waves within three hours—keeps the hair soft, silky and glossy—and nothing harmful or sticky about it. The curls will last the longest time in spite of heat, wind or dampness. You won't have to be continually fixing and fussing with loose, flying hair. It's so easy to singe and blazer and deadens your tresses with a hot curling iron—and altogether unnecessary now.

DO YOU KNOW that thousands of pale, weak, nervous, rundown men and women have regained their strength, energy and nerve force by simply taking—

PRINCE CAROL IS FETTERED IN N.Y.

Heir to Rumanian Throne Is Guest at Gerard Dinner. Visits Art Museum.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—Up to last midnight Crown Prince Carol of Roumania had been in this city 48 hours without making public his views on the following subjects: The high buildings.

Whether and in what respects he found the metropolis different from Bucharest.

Nor were these the only topics on which Prince Carol declined to edify the public. The sad truth is that newspaper men were turned away without an inkling of the reflections on his first day in New York.

The tall, slender, slightly stooped young man who stepped from a pullman just in from Chicago at 9 o'clock yesterday morning into the welcoming arms of a delegation of local Rumanians looked quite capable of forming his own opinions about whatever fell under his gaze. His eyes were quick and alert, his expression vivacious, with a lack of democracy in his manner. It was simply that he was traveling "incog" that made him first day.

"HIGH SPOTS" OF FIRST DAY.

It was promised, however, that this afternoon, after time to digest his impressions, the Prince will make a statement.

The high spots of Prince Carol's first day here were his visit to the Metropolitan Museum of Art yesterday afternoon and a dinner at the Ritz last night, given by former Ambassador James W. Gerard. His program for today was among other royal secrets, but as he has not yet visited the Woolworth building and the Stock Exchange, it may be expected that he will be seen in the downtown marts.

Tolliston Wells, Rumanian consul general in New York, headed the delegation of about 150 which welcomed the prince and his party at the Grand Central Terminal yesterday. There were thirteen in the royal entourage, including three valets and a servant. In the party were Minister Filidor, Rumanian minister to Greece; Gen. Brigades Gavanesco, T. Postamir, Col. N. Hodescu, Capt. Lazar Horia, Lieutenant Colonel Condiescu, and Rado Djuvara. The party went to the Waldorf-Astoria.

SURVEYS CITY FROM AUTO.

At 3 o'clock the prince entered an automobile for his first real survey of the city. Lieutenant Colonel Condiescu and a Secret Service man went with him.

PRINCE CAROL MAY PICK U. S. HEIRESS AS BRIDE

PARIS, Aug. 25.—Society circles of Paris have been thrown into a state of great excitement by the report from Deauville that Prince Carol of Roumania was to visit New York, with a likely result being an international romance that will bring an American heiress to the Rumanian throne.

The report alleges that Queen Marie of Roumania, while in Paris last night, given by former Ambassador James W. Gerard. His program for today was among other royal secrets, but as he has not yet visited the Woolworth building and the Stock Exchange, it may be expected that he will be seen in the downtown marts.

Agreeing after three years of pressure to divorce his "morganatic" wife, Prince Carol is stated to have informed his mother that he was disgusted with the royal marriage intrigues of Europe, and that if he could not keep his chosen bride, he would cross the Atlantic and find a wife among the beauties of America.

Seventy-second street, the Riverside drive to 118th street, Amsterdam and Convent avenues to 122nd street, the Polo Grounds from the bridge, and back through Central Park to the Art Museum, little escaped the prince's notice. He displayed special interest in the battle-ship in the Hudson and the crowd of fans pouring into the Polo Grounds as he passed. His chauffeur was called upon in faultless English to explain the novelties.

NOT BLIND TO BEAUTY.

Also it was observed that Prince Carol not only saw but appreciated the New York girl as presented on the sidewalks. "Prince of Romance" though he is, estranged for the moment by parental edict from his bride, daughter of a Rumanian soldier and hence below his station, he did not appear blind to feminine charms.

At the museum he found the great-est entertainment in the Egyptian rooms, through which he was shown by Dr. Bashford Dean, the curator. He promised to come again. The picture galleries got only ten minutes of his time. Even of his fellow visitors in the museum realized a royal prince was among them, so he was left free to follow his own bent. As he emerged from the museum a newspaper photographer asked permission to take his picture.

"Go ahead—I don't care," the Prince replied. "It's great fun."

FORTY AT DINNER.

Back at the hotel he disappeared into his suite until time for the Gerard dinner. His fellow guests at the Ritz, none was about, included Count Reginald Ward, Col. Joseph M. Hartfield, Col. Charles Hayden, District Attorney Edward Swann, Police Commissioner Richard E. Enright, Messrs. William C. Reick, Melville B. Stone, Arthur Brisbane, Louis Wiley, Norman de R. Whitehouse, James A. Foley, Otto Kahn, F. W. Wile, Charles B. Alexander, Clarence H. Mackay, Henry W. Taft, Julian W. Gerard, T. Tilton Wells, William Nelson Cromwell, Henry Huddleston Rogers, De Lancy Nicoll, F. Cunliffe Owen, George McAneny, Abram Elkus, Novert Pendergast, Edward J. Barber of Baltimore; James A. O'Gorman, George B. Post, Samuel Marx, Lee Schubert, A. Leo Everett, James J. Hoey, Alexander J. Hemphill, Marcus Daly, Alan D. Ryan, Walter C. Teague, Pat Harrison, United States Senator from Mississippi; William Marshall of Iowa; George T. White, chairman Democratic national committee; Spotswood Danaher, Bowdoin, Bernard M. Baruch, United States Marshal Thomas D. McCarthy and J. Sergeant Cram.

Following the dinner the party attended a theater, where the diversion planned for the six days of the Prince will remain an air cruise around the city in a flying boat and a trip to West Point.

RAID CRAP THROWERS FROM AIR, NEW PLAN

Aviator to Swoop Down on Dice Throwers in Big Sunday Games Around Pittsburgh.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 25.—Crap games where high stakes are played for each Sunday will be spied out by an official aviator of the county detective department. Annoyed at failure of officers to arrest crapshooters, the county officials have engaged an aviator to fly over the section where the big games are run and swoop down on the players.

Owing to the topography of the country in Penn township the gamblers, aided by lookouts, have been able to frustrate the police in their attempts to break the game. Lookouts with powerful glasses soon spread the alarm and the crapshooters are mere picnickers when the detectives reach the spot.

The roadway in the vicinity of the big games is crowded every Sunday with motor cars, whose owners come from all sections of western Pennsylvania to play. In yesterday's game over $60,000 in hands, according to one of the bankers.

RUM FILLS COFFINS INSTEAD OF CORPSES

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—A report was received by James Shevlin, supervising prohibition enforcement agent, that illegal transportation of liquor in Westchester county is being carried on by using hearses, the coffins in which contain liquor instead of corpses.

Mr. Shevlin has instructed his men to take a peep at the inside of caskets where their suspicions were aroused, but at the same time he recognizes the impracticability of holding up all funeral corteges to search for liquor.

"BLIND TIGER" NOT DARK ENOUGH; OWNERS JAILED

SULLIVAN, Ind., Aug. 25.—"This is a first-class blind tiger, but please keep it to yourself."

This sign, printed on a raft in the barn lot of a Hungarian south-western, was found by Steve Toth, Polish coal miner, Clinton, into a lot of hot water. The sheriff got wind that the pair and another miner were operating a still on the farm of a friend. Now they're in jail.

WOMAN FINDS BOY KIDNAPED A YEAR

Lad, 14, Prefers Barber Father to Millions Offered by Wealthy Mother.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Aug. 25.—"Teddie" Braithwaite, aged fourteen, who it is alleged, was kidnaped from a military school in Los Angeles more than a year ago, by his father, John Braithwaite, has been found in Pittsburgh. Both the father and son are under arrest today. His father will be arrayed against the mother and her second husband, James Mortimer Davis, of Los Angeles.

The father is a barber here and the boy prefers to stick to him rather than go back to California where he might live in a mansion and have millions at his command. Common pleas court is expected to act today upon a plea for a writ of habeas corpus restoring the boy to his mother and stepfather.

Braithwaite some years ago married the daughter of a prominent Los Angeles family. The romance was wrecked and a divorce followed. The court gave the mother the custody of the child, who was later placed in a military school.

In June, 1919, the boy disappeared and a nation-wide search followed. A letter from the boy to one of his California chums revealed his whereabouts in the Pittsburgh district. The mother came from California and yesterday detectives went to the father's barber shop and took son and parent into custody.

Backache

If this is your trouble, whether you are a woman or a man, one of the organs of your body is out of order. Which one I do not know, nor do you know. What you want is something to relieve it as quickly as possible. The organ in trouble may be the stomach, kidney, liver or the bowels. Buchu and Hops is the most versatile drug within our knowledge for this ailment. It acts upon all the organs at the same time. It wears the pains away to stay, not to come back every month or so to worry you more and more. 50 cents a bottle at Tyree & Co., Druggists and Auto Supplies, 15th and H Sts. N. E.
